

STAGE TWO - foundations

The digger is used for digging deep holes for concrete to be poured into to support the heavy weight of the new mobile

The foundations are complete when the concrete blocks are all the same height above the ground, surrounded by shingle

